SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to him, “See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them.” The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. - Mk 1:44-45b

Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest ...continued

Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest: What does it really mean? If a priest is unavailable to preside at Mass due to extraordinary or emergency situations such as a sudden illness, the rite of Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest may be invoked. This rite includes the hearing and reflecting on the Word of God, giving thanks and praise, offering intercessions, and may include reception of Holy Communion. This is not a Mass and one is not obligated to attend. Nevertheless, it remains important for the faithful to gather on Sunday as a community of faith. Assemblies of this kind should not take away but should rather increase the desire of the faithful to take part in the celebration of the Eucharist.

How does this rite differ from Mass? The primary way in which this rite differs from Mass is that even though communion may be distributed at this rite, the Eucharistic Prayer (which includes the consecration) is absent. The complete memorial of the Lord's sacrificial offering, as he commanded, is absent. Also missing from this celebration are:

- ◆ The priest, who acts in the person of Christ,
- ◆ The presentation of the gifts of bread and wine,
- ◆ The Eucharistic Prayer, the Eucharistic actions of taking, giving thanks, and the breaking of the bread
- ◆ The greetings and blessings proper to a priest when a layperson leads the prayer.

The secondary way in which this rite differs from Mass is that there is no homily, unless a deacon is the leader. If a lay person has been properly trained and has received permission from the bishop, he or she may give a reflection following the reading of the Gospel.

Save the Date! The next Turkey Dinner is on Saturday, February 28 at 5 p.m. at St. Mary's Church.

Join a Holy Spirit Parish Ministry

The Parish is looking for those willing to serve in the various ministries that assist at Masses. We are looking for new Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Gift Bearers and youth and adult Altar Servers for all Masses. Please join us for an informational session with Father Tom on Sunday, March 8th, in Kennebunk at 10 a.m. or in Wells at 2 p.m.

Father will explain the responsibilities and privileges of serving the Parish in each of these roles. Ministers serve both God and our parishioners. Those who currently serve find their ministry a "blessed and rewarding opportunity." They find it "humbling to know that we touch people's lives with this wonderful gift from God." All ministers will tell you that it is a wonderful way to more fully participate in the Mass. As one minister aptly put it: "Once we accept the request to become more involved in the Mass, it takes on a new meaning, a new direction for your spiritual walk."

RSVP: Mamie Ney for Kennebunk at mmaney@gwi.net or 229-0989 and Amy Anderson for Wells at amyrnedd@maine.rr.com or 251-4921. Refreshments will be served.
