TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Quiet! Be still!” The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, “Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?”

- Mk 4:39-40

HOLY SPIRIT PARISH

What is Sunday about?

When I was growing up, I got the distinct idea that to “keep holy the Sabbath” meant to go to church. Now I have come to realize that it means a great deal more than that.

I remember the situation very clearly. I was in Jerusalem for the first time. The occasion was an international meeting of professional women, but, as far as I was concerned, the more important thing was that it gave me a chance to see the Holy Land,. Anything else was pure bonus.

Because it was Friday, the beginning of the Jewish Sabbath...the rabbi got up to explain Shabbat to the guests. “The Talmud,” he said, “gives us three reasons for keeping the Sabbath.”

“The first reason for Sabbath,” he went on, “is that given the fact that no one is permitted to do anything on Shabbat, no orders could be given, no work done. Therefore the slaves and the rich would be equal for at least one day of week.”

“The second reason is that we have time to reflect on the meaning of our lives.”

“The third reason for Sabbath is that we can reflect on the goodness of our work as God did on creation on the seventh day.”

Nice, I thought,. But does it really translate to our world here and now? Is it practical? Does it even make sense?

Then, just before he sat down, he did something that took Shabbat out of the Talmud and put it right in the middle of life. “See this pen,” he said twirling a fountain pen between his fingers. “I am a writer. This is my work.” He took his pen and put it in his briefcase. “On Shabbat,” he finished, “I never use a pen. Today is for God and me. Not for me.” That one I understood.

A week later I returned to the States. On Sunday morning, after Mass, the streets were teeming with cars, all the stores were open, lawn mowers roared on every street while people did what they hadn’t had time to do during the week...

Surely, the real sin to which the third commandment points is not the sin of not going to church on Sunday. It is the sin of not seriously seeking God.

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES OF ST. IGNATIUS: 19TH ANNOTATION RETREAT

Has Pope Francis' prayerfulness and ministry of healing and wholeness caught your attention? Would you like to know what it is that underpins Pope Francis' spirituality? Do you sense Jesus inviting you to "come away" with him for a while? Do you desire to learn how to pray more deeply? Do you wonder how that can happen in the busyness of your daily life? Are you in need of making a major decision?

If you answered yes to any of these questions The 19th Annotation of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius might be just what you are looking for. This retreat is commonly called, "The Retreat of Daily Life". It begins in mid-September and ends in mid-May. We meet weekly on Wednesdays and there is a choice of morning or evening session. The sessions are about 2 hours long. The meetings are held at St. Martha's Church in Kennebunk. FMI call Maureen Fulford (468-4070), or Ellie Flavin (985-2971).

Parish Fair
