

HOLY SPIRIT PARISH

The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time — June 28, 2015

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid; just have faith.” When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, “Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.”

- Mk 5:36bc, 38-39

Roman Catholic Diocese of Portland
Office of Lifelong Faith Formation

The Role of Parents/Guardians in Sacrament Preparation

“How precious is the family as the privileged place for transmitting the faith”!
Pope Francis

The Diocese of Portland calls upon parents/guardians to help prepare their children for reception of the sacraments. The home is where faith is developed and lived out. Each parent/guardian models to their child what the life of faith looks like. The following practices will help them:

- ◆ Participate in Sunday Mass and help your child learn responses.
- ◆ Participate in a family conversation with pastor, clergy, pastoral staff, catechetical leader or catechist.
- ◆ Teach your child prayers by praying with them often at home and explaining their meaning.
- ◆ Pray with your child at meals and bedtime.
- ◆ Read Bible Stories with your child.
- ◆ Bring your child to weekly faith formation sessions and complete home activities with your child to foster love and understanding of their faith.
- ◆ Participate in the special sessions planned for parents/guardians to attend together with your child each year.
- ◆ Place and use a Bible and other religious articles such as a crucifix, holy water and sacred images in your home.
- ◆ Once your child has made their First Reconciliation, we encourage you as a family to receive the grace of forgiveness in the sacrament regularly.
- ◆ Once your child has been confirmed and received First Eucharist, continue as a family to support their faith formation by attending weekly Mass.

“Parents/Guardians are the first and best teachers of their children in the ways of faith, and we depend on their faith as the primary models and motivators of their children.” CCC#1212
