FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.” So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. - Mk 6:4-5

Pastoral Council News

On June 22, the Pastoral Council met at St. Mary's in Wells for the last meeting of the year. The brief business meeting which included updates on all business items was followed by the seating of four new members and the election of officers.

Welcome to the four new members, Leo Ouellette, Elizabeth Kiley, Diane Ouellette and Donna Murphy. Our procedure allows for submission of names and then to draw out of the hat. There were six nominees for four seats.

A special thanks to the outgoing members, Jim Heenan, Katie Shellene, Kathy Baker and Paul Mamone. These individuals have served diligently for two terms. Each term is for three years.

We look forward to a new year with the effort of the Council being directed to areas of :

- ◆ "Improved Communication both inside and outside the organization"
- ◆ "A focus of young adults in ministry"
- ◆ "Development of welcoming procedures for all new members"

Our efforts will be led by Fr. Tom Murphy, President of the Council, Mary Colombo, newly elected Chair of the Council and Bill Sawyer, newly elected Vice Chair. Rosanne Smith will serve as Recording Secretary. The first meeting for the new year 2015/2016 will be on September 7 at 6:30 p.m. in Wells.
