Do you have a student entering preschool or kindergarten? Give them the gift of a Saint James School education where the class sizes are small and teachers teach the whole child. Students learn about their religion and have art, music, computer, physical education, library, French, STREAM (Science-Technology-Religion-Engineering-Art-Math) classes. They are part of a prek-8th grade school and are part of all the whole school events. Financial aid is available making a Saint James education accessible to you. Call for a tour — 282-4084! A Parish subsidy is also available if you use our budget envelopes on a regular basis.
