“It is better to light one candle than to curse the darkness”

The ancient practice of lighting candles is perhaps one of the most intimate prayers we have. Those we love, we remember, those in need we commend and those lost to be found.

We have restored votive candles in the Church of St. Martha's at the feet of Mary, Mother of God. And now we are pleased to install a votive candle in St. Mary's Chapel in Wells also before the Blessed Mother.

The most recent set of candles in Wells is the gift of Bill and Ida Neistorowich. I am so grateful to them for bringing about a new place of prayer.
