12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s knowledge... So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.” - Mt 10:29, 31

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Prophet of the Most High

When the time arrived for Elizabeth to have her child she gave birth to a son. When they came on the eighth day to circumcise the child, they were going to call him Zechariah after his father, but his mother said in reply, “No. He will be called John.” Lk 1:57, 59-60

JUNE 25, 2017

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid." Can it really be true? Is our heavenly Father actually so aware of us? Does the Creator of the universe pay that much attention to me? Jesus says yes. God knows us far more intimately than we even know ourselves. And so, we have nothing to fear.

Being Christian isn't guaranteed to be easy. More and more even in our own culture, following the faith is being criticized and discouraged in the public square. Privately, we may struggle with the demands of the commandments or the ability to believe when we face the inevitable trials that come our way. But passages like this one in today's Gospel are a source of tremendous hope and consolation. We are loved beyond measure. We enjoy the care and concern of God in every situation, big and small. Truly we have no need to worry or be anxious because God is in control.

For our part, of course, Jesus asks us to trust him and stay faithful. He asks us not to apologize for our faith, especially publicly. "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." When we live our faith with confidence, it's a way of accepting the power and providence of God. But when we try to hide our faith away because we're afraid of causing problems, we only damage our relationship with the One who can actually solve them.

At the end of the day, the only really serious problem we need to worry about is losing our soul—and that, to be sure, is up to us. As the great French novelist Léon Bloy wrote, "There is only one tragedy in the end: not to have been a saint."

Maker Fun Factory Vacation Bible School

Kids and parents – sign up now for this summer's fun and unique Maker Fun Factory vacation Bible school adventure! Kids aged 4 and up will discover not only that God made them the way they are, but for a purpose too! Maker Fun Factory is filled with incredible Bible-learning experiences kids see, hear, touch, and even taste! Sciency-fun gizmos, team-building games, cool Bible songs, and tasty treats are just a few of the standout activities that help faith flow into real life. Plus, we'll help kids discover how to see evidence of God in everyday life – something we call God Sightings, and each child will have the opportunity to participate in a meaningful service project. This summer, Maker Fun Factory VBS will be held at St. Martha in Kennebunk from July 24 – 28, 9:30am to 12:30pm each day. Registration forms may be picked up at both church offices, or downloaded from our parish website, www.holyspiritme.org. In order to make this VBS experience a success, we need lots of help and volunteers! Grandparents and teenagers make especially fantastic vacation Bible school team members!!! If you would like to volunteer for this amazing event, or FMI, please contact the parish director of faith formation, Carolyn Houston, 646-5605, 985-6252 or churchlady5605@gmail.com.

Three Beliefs: Suzanne Lafreniere, the Director of the Office of Public Policy for the Diocese of Portland will be speaking on Wednesday, July 19 at 3:00 p.m. at St. Mary’s Church in Wells, and 6:00 p.m. at St. Martha’s Church in Kennebunk. She will discuss Bishop Deeley’s recent promulgated document, Three Beliefs. It is a guide for Maine Catholics that offers valuable assistance and information regarding end-of-life issues. The 20 page document includes an explanation of Catholic teaching on life-sustaining treatment and care and the Maine Advance Directive form modified to ensure consistency with both Catholic teaching and Maine law. Parishioners of all ages are invited to learn more about how to make the difficult choices surrounding end-of-life medical care and how to share them with family and friends now to ensure that your beliefs about the sanctity of human life, the appropriateness of medical care, and the dignity of the dying process are known in advance so they can be met in the future.
