Our parish Makers Fun Factory Vacation Bible school was a spirit-driven success!!

Many, many thanks to all of the wonderful people who helped to make Makers Fun Factory an amazing and fun experience!!! We had an incredible decorating crew (the Imagineers!) who transformed St. Martha church hall into a creative fun factory, complete with spaceship, robot and giant building toys! All of our participants learned that we have been created by God and built for a purpose. The week ended with a lively Mass where the children presented their donations that will help build a well to provide clean water for children in Peru. Thank you to all of our parishioners and visitors who contributed props, prayers and well wishes this past week for our leaders and participants alike!

Special thanks to the Holy Spirit-driven "Imagineers" who cut, taped, stapled, painted, wired and glued the church hall into an inventor's paradise, and especially to the very creative and hard-working Melissa Perry and her family who kept the decorating going until every gear and gadget were in their proper places! Thanks to the St. Martha sexton, Tim Gallant, for all of his cheerful assistance! Finally, blessings and thanks to our incredible Station Leaders and Crew leaders: Melissa Perry, Kathleen Moseley, Dan Mahoney, Caroline Ford, Hunter McDonnell, Ryan McNeilly, Rosanne Smith, Claire Souliere, Dale Fohlin, Betty Hamilton, Michelle McNelis, Sharon Connors, Paula Dyer, LJ Gombar, Evan Enis, Emma Enis, Avery Dyer, Henry Kindler, Ryan Connors, Teagan Perry, Michael Moseley, Erin Norbert, Nicole Bilodeau, Genevieve Roy, Zacharie Roy, Marek Dyer, and Jacob Morris.

Bishop Deeley Invites Young People in Maine to Participate in Survey Aimed at Helping the Vatican Vision for the Future of the Catholic Church

Pope Francis has announced that a Synod of Bishops with the theme "Youth, Faith, and Vocational Discernment" will be held in October of 2018. A synod is an assembly of bishops from around the world who assist the Holy Father by providing counsel on important questions facing the Church.

To involve them in preparations for the synod in Vatican City, Pope Francis has asked young people around the world to "make your voice heard, let it resonate in communities and let it be heard by your shepherd of souls."

In that spirit, Bishop Robert P. Deeley is inviting all Maine young people (ages 16 to 29) to complete a survey on the Diocese of Portland website, providing an opportunity for this demographic to offer their opinions, viewpoints, and suggestions. The results of the survey will be correlated and provided to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for a report that will be submitted to the Vatican.

"The results from young people in Maine will also assist the diocese in our own planning as we look for ways in which to better engage them in the Church," said Bishop Deeley.

"Maureen Provencher, the diocese's coordinator for youth and young adult ministry, will be studying the surveys as they come in and reporting what the voices of our young people are saying to us as we plan ministries not only for them but with them. Parish life will be richer for it, as we discover new ways to bring God's love into the world around us."

To access the survey, visit: www.portlanddiocese.org/content/synod-youth-faith-and-vocational-discernment. This link is also be available on our website: www.holyspiritme.org
