21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church." Simon got a new name after his profession of faith. As soon as he declared to Jesus, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God," Jesus renamed him with a title that means "rock." And with that name he gave Peter the mission to be a solid foundation upon which he would build his church. Not Peter's church. Not James or Paul's church. Not Martin Luther's or John Calvin's or anybody else's. This is Jesus' church, the church of Christ himself, that we call the Catholic Church. So it was Christ himself who desired to give authority in the church--"the keys to the kingdom of heaven"--to a human leader. Peter was thus established as the first pope. He exercised a special kind of headship, within the community of the apostles and the church at large, because Jesus gave him the power to do so, not because Peter claimed it for himself. And so too every pope since, right down to our Holy Father today, exercises this unique leadership within the Church. What a gift this is to us! Jesus knew well the human tendency to squabble and disagree, to argue and compete. He knew that the church would be prone to all of this because of her members, and that providing a final voice of authority, saying in effect that "the buck stops here" would be helpful for maintaining unity. As Catholics, even in spite of the differing opinions and perspectives that are manifest in the Church, we nonetheless maintain a strong sense of identity and belief thanks in large part to the papacy. Today, may we give thanks for the pope and pray for him as he strives to lead all of us closer and closer to Christ.

The Faith Formation team invites you

Our parish is blessed with an amazing group of volunteers who are helping to form the faith of our parish children. We are in need of catechists (teachers) and assistants for several grades at both church sites, as well as people to serve as "faith techs" to provide extra assistance to children with disabilities. The faith formation office invites you to think and pray about whether you might be called by the Holy Spirit to assist with the faith formation of our parish children. Being a catechist, assistant or faith tech is a wonderful opportunity to give back to our faith community, and to share the love of Jesus with the next generation of Catholics. There are openings for people with all levels of knowledge, abilities, and time. Some classes are held on Sunday mornings and others on Monday afternoons. Materials and support are provided, as are training and background checks. Classes begin on September 24th. To volunteer, or for more information, please contact Carolyn Houston at 985-6252, 646-5605, or by email at churchlady5605@gmail.com.

Faith Formation for the 2017-2018 Academic Year

Registration for youth faith formation (religious education) for the 2017-2018 academic year for Kindergarten through High School is underway. Youth classes begin on September 24th with Sunday morning sessions at both St. Martha & St. Mary for Kindergarten through High School, and a Monday afternoon session at St. Mary's for grades 1-6. Classes are provided for children of all abilities. Children with developmental, intellectual, sensory, physical or behavioral disabilities are welcome and encouraged to attend! Registrations are required for all children, regardless of whether they have participated in Faith Formation at Holy Spirit Parish previously. Sacramental preparation is a two-year process (typically in 1st & 2nd grade) in the Diocese of Portland, so families are encouraged to enroll their pre-school and kindergarten-aged children in the programs at the parish in order that they may develop familiarity with faith formation prior to the Sacramental preparation years. Faith Formation Family Handbooks with Registrations Forms are available in the church offices, in the narthexes, and on our parish website at www.holyspiritme.org. The Handbook contains an academic calendar, a description of programs and policies, and other faith formation-related information. Please feel free to contact Carolyn Houston at 646-5605, 985-6252, or churchlady5605@gmail.com if you have any questions or need more details.
